The Great Ashby Festival has been organised by a small team of local people and businesses who have given up their time to create this event for the community. A working party consisting of Owen Smith (Chair of the Great Ashby Partnership and Chair of GACCMA), Lindsey Brockhurst and Evelyn Goldwater (both of GACCMA), Dot Smith (Community Centre Manager), Peter Whitehead (manager at Budgens), Hannah Rowe, Tracey Turner and Nicky from Busy Bees Nursery have worked together over the last few months. Thanks also to Annu and Jasmin Donovan who have taken onboard the line up and p.a. for Great Ashby Unplugged and Julia Oliveira who has worked on the Bake Off. We are also grateful to Sue Hardwidge for baking all the scones for the Cream Tea. Many of these folk are volunteers in respect of the Festival and we are very grateful for their willingness to help put on this event.

Finally, thanks must go to the Great Ashby Community Council for paying for all the inflatables at the Festival Fun Day and Budgens for sponsoring the Community Breakfast.

All the inflatables at today's event were paid for by:

Great Ashby Community Breakfast

You don't need an excuse to come along and enjoy a beautifully cooked full English breakfast right here in Great Ashby, although Fathers Day could be a good one! The Community Breakfast will be served in the Main Hall in the Community Centre. There will be the Sunday papers if you just want to chill and also a craft table for the kids to make a Fathers Day present.

Tickets are £4 for adults and £2.50 for children 10 and under, see Tickets note below.

Tickets

Tickets for both events are now available from Dot in the Community Centre office. The office is currently open from 7:30am until 1pm Monday to Friday. If you can't get to the office during opening hours, please text Dot on 07952 323 692 who will be happy to arrange a different time for you to buy tickets. Tickets will also be available to buy at the Festival Fun Day.

Why not finish off the festival weekend with the Great Ashby Cream Tea, organised by the Great Ashby Community Centre Management Association (GACCMA). Homemade scones, cream and homemade jam will be served with a pot of tea and there will be a range of cakes to choose from too. The Cotter School of Irish Dancing will be performing.
